Member Reserve Retirement Anniversary Date

Member Reserve Retirement Anniversary Date is the calendar date that establishes the start of a DoD Military Service member's twelve month anniversary year.

Permitted Values

NA

Structural Business Rules

A calendar date must have a day, a month, and a year including century (i.e., YYYYMMDD).

Member Reserve Retirement Anniversary Date establishes the beginning of the twelve month period used to calculate Member Annual Reserve Retirement Point Quantity.

A DoD Military Service member must accumulate a Member Annual Reserve Retirement Point Quantity of at least fifty within the twelve month period following a Member Reserve Retirement Anniversary Date in order for that twelve month period to count towards the Member Reserve Retirement Qualifying Year Quantity.
